Rt Revd of dear Sir

I trust to have the pleasure of seeing you again this morning for a very short time. I send you the two Books which your early departure prevented my shewing you last night.
Will you look at Wilks P. 236 immediately? I shall be with you at $\frac{1}{4}$

Gaskin may call on you to day.

I read the papers in Chalmers last night to the company, who were much struck with them.

I am, Rt. Rev^d & dear Sir;
with great veneration,

Your very faithful serv^t
